

President Sisi honors winning athletic teams at African, world tournaments

Dec 07, 2019

EGYPT: -

Egyptian President Abdel Fattah al-Sisi on Saturday morning honored female and male players along with athletic trainers who won African and global championships.

The honored are Egypt's U23 national football team, the national Karate team, the Squash team, as well as the Paralympic team, according to Presidential Spokesman Ambassador Bassam Rady.